The MORE Difference

Dihydrotestosterone (DHT) is a testosterone by-product causing hair thinning and Male Pattern Baldness symptoms like receding hairline in genetically predisposed men. This conversion from testosterone to DHT harms hair follicles in both genders. Even low testosterone levels in women can trigger DHT-related hair loss.

Top hair growth products use synthetic chemicals to slow hair loss or strengthen follicles. They work as DHT blockers (Propecia/Finasteride) or vasodilators increasing follicle blood flow (Minoxidil/Rogaine). These treatments have potential risks: vasodilators may raise blood pressure, DHT blockers can cause sexual issues and sterility. Not safe for women, especially during pregnancy.

Our natural, proprietary, clinically-tested, and patent-pending formula works in an entirely novel way on TRPV1 receptors. These receptors are dormant in hair follicles affected by a lack of blood flow and DHT levels. Just like a lock and key, it acts to turn those receptors back on. When used both systemically and topically, it reactivates our ability to grow thick and healthy hair.
